

Beautiful Events

San Francisco Chefs 2011

House Beautiful brought design, food and color together for a standing-room only panel on "Culinary Design: Plate Meets Palate" at San Francisco Chefs 2011: San Francisco's Premiere Food, Wine & Spirits Week. Color expert Kate Smith, Chef Christopher Kostow of Meadowood, and leading food photographer Deborah Jones presented a lively, informative, and delicious panel presentation that incorporated all the elements of successful entertaining.

Left: Chef Christopher Kostow, Kate Smith and Deborah Jones. Right: Chef Tyler Florence.

Color! Color! Color! at the New York Design Center

House Beautiful joined forces with the New York Design Center at their annual What's New, What's Next, which is eagerly looked forward to all year long by professional and passionate design enthusiasts. Editor in Chief Newell Turner, along with some of his top editors, presented Color, Color, Color!, an in-depth look at why color is a topic we can never get enough of, in the Benjamin Moore Showroom.

Left: The House Beautiful team: Newell Turner, Christine Pittel, Shax Riegler, Orli Ben-Dor, Sabine Rothman. Right: Eileen McComb, Benjamin Moore; Sean Sullivan, House Beautiful.

Harbinger Celebrates New Showroom

On October 27th, House Beautiful partnered with Harbinger and Holland & Sherry to celebrate the opening of Joe Lucas & Parrish Chilcoat's showroom at their new home in the heart of Los Angeles' La Cienega Design Quarter. Three hundred guests enjoyed Southside cocktails and lobster rolls from celebrity Chef Lulu Powers, while perusing fabric, wallpaper and furniture lines from Katie Ridder, Idarica Gazzoni, Amanda Nisbet and Bunny Williams' Beeline Home. Holland & Sherry has partnered with Harbinger to have their own atelier in the new showroom.

Dan Waldron, Holland & Sherry; Parrish Chilcoat, Harbinger/Lucas Studio, Inc.; Bryan Dicker, Holland & Sherry; Joe Lucas, Harbinger/Lucas Studio, Inc.

Luke and Kristy Kallis.